THE GOOD AND THE DEAD Part II Mobster Carmine Tropani is dead. His old friend, Roland Lambert, steps up to take his place, bringing a new team of contract killers in tow. Carmine's murderer, Meryl Gamble, attempts to start a new life with her lover in a small town, only to find a familiar face who just might ruin her chance at redemption and renewal. Detective David Tate and Officer Bobby Parker continue to find themselves stuck working in a police department that seems more interested in sweeping crime under the rug than fighting it. John Harden faces the challenge of balancing his new marriage with his job as Roland Lambert's best assassin. This is a tale of good-versus-evil, love, loss, redemption and sacrifice. New characters are introduced. Dark secrets are revealed. Shocking twists change the playing field forever. Gripping from beginning to end, BLOOD EVERYWHERE will hook fans of hard-nosed crime fiction and leave every reader wondering what could possibly happen next.
