Do You, Mr Jones?: Bob Dylan with the Poets and Professors

Do You, Mr Jones?: Bob Dylan with the Poets and Professors

In this collection of essays, poets and professors explore different aspects of Bob Dylan's work, his impact on their own intellectual and artistic lives, as well as his wider influence. Rigorous and challenging, these writings are at once a tribute to and a questioning of the genius Leonard Cohen called "the Picasso of song." Among the contributors are Oxford professor Christopher Butler, Princeton professors Paul Muldoon and Sean Wilentz, and writer Susan Wheeler, faculty member of Princeton and the New School in New York.
