Martin, a lonely man quickly approaching middle age, decides to take a trip to the Philippine Islands to meet Mariana, a young woman he met through an Internet dating service.

Once there, he finds himself in a backwoods village that resembles a ghost town. Only a handful of residents remain present, the rest have fled out of fear of an ancient legend called the aswang, a vampire/witch hybrid creature that has haunted the town for decades.

Scoffing at the primitive ghost stories, Martin falls for the charms of the lovely Mariana. He soon finds out, however, that third world superstitions can lead to some dark places that are very real and dangerous.
