The Road Trip Christopher Ryan Kenealy

It is 1960s and Aaron, Sarah, Marty, and John are driving to New York to confront a man who has done something terrible. It is a story of four friends exacting justice on what hate and traditional thinking has caused. The four may have planned out the night but with little to no experience problems come to the surface that they never expected to face. This one night will subject everyone to acts of violence, deception, and death in order to survive and make what is right.
