Bewitching You - when steamy romance meets magic and mayhem...

A love spell gone wrong. An interfering ghost. A nosy mind-reading grandmother. And a psychic man-hating mother. To say Sofia Good's life is a mess might be the understatement of the century. But when her visions forecast a love worth fighting for, she's willing to do just about anything to meet the man of her dreams.

Grayson Phillips lost his twin brother in a senseless accident, and now he's trying to gain back control by maintaining a safe and uneventful "life plan." But after sexy, quirky Sofia crash lands into his world he's forced to rethink his strategy.

When a love spell is cast on the pair—drawing them together despite the odds—time will tell what fate has planned for them.

EXCERPT:

He set the glass down behind her. "Maybe I should go if you're done with me, then," he said, but didn't budge. His dark gaze searched hers, waiting.

"Maybe you should." Sofia shot back at him, feeling proud of herself. If only for a moment. "Isn't that why you're here? To get rid of me once and for all?"

He chuckled uneasily and shook his head.

"Is something funny?"

"Funny. Ironic. Insane. All of the above." In a quick move, he was in front of her again, leaning forward and bracing a hand on each side of her.

"What are..." She couldn't finish the question. His face was so close to hers...his lips just a tongue-lick away. If she were a bolder woman, she'd do just that—stick her tongue out and outline the ridge of his sexy, fierce lips. Yep, a bolder woman might want to do that.

She swallowed. Time literally ticked by as the grandfather clock tick-tocked in the corner. The sound was usually soothing. Now it only emphasized the rapid beating of her heart.

"Do you want the truth, Sofia?" His eyes glistened in the lamplight as if he couldn't hold his secret back for another second.

She squelched her curiosity as best she could, then jerked a shoulder up and resumed breathing. "Sure. Go for it."

“Those dreams”—a fresh grin slowly curved his lips—“are all I have to look forward to. I don’t want them to stop.” He gave a short laugh. “And you know what?”

“You’ve lost your mind?”

“Possibly. Because I have no desire to leave here tonight.” He brought a hand up and ran his knuckles across her cheek. “I don’t want to leave here. Can I stay? I promise to behave myself.”
