DESTINY ISN'T CALLING. Kemble Tremaine is thirty-seven. He knows he'll never get magic like the rest of his family. The Merlin gene has passed him by. No true love, no magic power to help the family in their fight against the descendants of Morgan Le Fay. Since it doesn't matter who he marries, he asks his sister's best friend, Jane. At least he'll be rescuing her from a horrible home life. CINDERELLA MISSES THE BALL. Jane Butler has loved Kemble since she was twelve years old. She's well aware he's not marrying her for love, but she hopes she can make him comfortable. HAPPINESS IS RELATIVE. Comfort isn't on the menu for the Tremaines. Kemble's sister has been having visions of tragedy. The family finds one of Merlin's precious artifacts, meant to increase the power of those with magic. Morgan and her Clan want it too. They can't be far behind. Can Kemble and Jane find destiny in the face of danger and even death?
