I HATE RYAN RUGGLES is an anthology of dadaistic word artistry, chock full of elements of surrealism, satire, spontaneity, and sheer lunacy. Upon reading a couple pages, the short style and precarious placement of the sentence poetry keeps the reader entertained, addicting them on simple levels of levity, lyricism, and prose. Powerful quotes, paraphrases, and sentence fragments send jolts to the reader's psyche reawakening portions of their mind that society hath desensitized. Perception and perspective become forever altered. Dare you to reawaken your mind?
