In Sickness and In Health (Terminal Book 1) Jason Nichols

David has been HIV positive for four years now. His friends and family keep walking away from him. He grows bitter and lonely and sinks into a depression so low he is determined to just fade away and die.

Louis is the father of two sons and is raising them alone after his husband died three years before. Out with friends one night he lays eyes on David.

Together the two begin a whirlwind journey through life. Love, marriage, children, and tragedies along the way fill their lives. Can David let go of the feelings from the past and move forward and love? Can Louis's heart survive this relationship? Being terminal is no longer an obstacle to love.
