El maldito disco de Cole Porter (Spanish Edition) Adolfo Perez Agusti
