Wake Up Shepard: The Indoctrination Theory of Mass Effect 3 Daemian Dumas

Over the course of five years, BioWare captivated gamers with the Mass Effect series; amazing gameplay and a story arch that surpassed all expectations separated this series from any other game. And when Mass Effect 3 was released in March 2012, it only got better. Fans loved the game from start to... well, until the finish. Players who reached this half hour ending were angry, unsatisfied, and downright confused. They complained of a lack of closure and an array of plot holes that didn't make any sense. Most proclaimed this to be a disappointing ending to a beloved series. But is it? The Indoctrination Theory is the answer to that question, single handedly filling each and every plot hole while creating the best interpretation of Mass Effect's ending. This short book fills each plot hole and lingering question using the Indoctrination Theory, and ultimately shows how the ending of Mass Effect 3 is far more brilliant than it may appear....
