Dark Memories Wandering Souls: True Haunted Accounts in the Amish Heartland Donna M. Miller
From the time she was 12 years old, Donna Miller has been experiencing unexplained phenomenon. The tragic loss of her mother was her first encounter with the spirit world. Black magic rituals were a part of her upbringing, along with the mental and physical torment she had to endure by the hands of her grandfather. She also had many unexplained incidents in living in the old Amish farmhouse in Lancaster County, PA. From strange sounds, to seeing apparitions, she was very fearful for the safety of her children. Throughout her life the spirits have been following her wherever she goes. From the grocery store, to her current apartment where her and her fiancé Jim still live, there is never a dull moment. Her journey still continues to this day. Along with her two sisters Toni and Rona, she tries to unmask the questions to why the lost souls still wander in and out of her life.
