Little did Nate Know They Would Become Hot Lovers...

When the new kid on the block joins Nate on Block D, he dismisses the pretty boy as nothing more than a spoiled rich kid with a death wish.

Picked on, bullied, tormented, Clark has a rough introduction to the new world of prison life. But when three men land him in the hospital, he finds that there's a lot more to living in the prison system than just surviving.

Impressed and grateful for Nate's interference, the pair begin to hang out, to learn more about each other and the way the world works. They develop a relationship of protection, confidence and, eventually romance.

But will the prison system allow their young love to continue, or will they be forced apart? Will separation dampen their feelings, or will they merely grow, waiting for the day they're released? Only time will tell, and Nate doesn't mind waiting...
