Aisha Clarke was raised in a Christian background, and her father even became a senior minister at the local church. As a result of this, she lived a conservative life and missed out on most of the things that young people were indulging in, including sex, alcohol and drugs. She grows up and becomes a successful lawyer with a very bright future, until she meets Mia, an escort. Mia introduces her to the world of men, drugs and money and Aisha discovers just how much she craves them.

She ends up messing up her job and has to seek the help of one of her father's old time friends to help her get back her job. Arthur brings in an childhood enemy of hers, Bryan, to monitor her when she gets back the job. At first she does not recognize him, but when she does, she realizes that he is a very hot guy and she has a mad crush on him.

In the line of his duty, her boss asks Bryan to monitor her closely and the two realize that they are madly in love with each other. Bryan has always had a crush on her. As they make love, he asks her to marry him.
