Panduan Lengkap Internet lewat Ponsel Java (Indonesian Edition) Hikmawan Ali Nova

Sinopsis: "Do you only use mobile phone for SMS and voice calls, but in fact, there are so many interesting applications such as internet embedded in the phone? What a waste! Because you have missed various info, events and even the chance to gain many friends and acquaintances. Is it true? The easy example, look at the astonishing growth of social network such as Facebook and Twitter. We often see people who are busy with their phones in various places and occasions. Yes, they are utilising the internet on their mobile phone! Or, do you only like internet because of Facebook and Twitter? This is also such a waste! Because the jungle of this cyber world that we can explore through mobile phone is so wide. Not only socialising on social network such as Facebook and Twitter, but we can also chat through Yahoo Messenger, be involved with the excitement of discussing a certain topic in a forum likeKaskus, following the update of information through news website such as Detik.com, express ourselves through blog, and other things. Everything can be accessed through a Java-based mobile phone!"
