TRAPPED IN A BUBBLE: A True Story of Surviving Child Abuse, Violence and Depression (Gay & Lesbian) Jack Collins

You should never go back...

Jack had escaped once. From that house. That street. That city. And from his parents.

As a troubled teenager, struggling with his sexuality after years of verbal, mental and physical abuse, he moved to another city, put together a new life, and became a different person.

But years later, in the aftermath of a violent attack, he begins to unravel, which leads to a move abroad followed by a return to his childhood home. Moving back into that claustrophobic house full of unwanted memories - with his manipulative, controlling mother and her bizarre, obsessive behaviour, and too many reminders of his abusive father - wasn't supposed to be for long, but as the past catches up with him, he heads towards a breakdown and finds himself trapped once again in the last place he ever wanted to be.
