Funny, Laughy, Sexy Jay Buckner

Pure whimsy. Men will view “Funny, Laughy, Sexy” as a serious examination of behavior in the pursuit of sex under the guise of courtship, while women will see the truth; an idiot on the prowl. It’s irreverent, ridiculous, unlikely and shallow, but funny. Give yourself a break from the seriousness of the dance between the sexes and laugh at us as we try to navigate what drives the two species of humankind on their way to creating little people. The author’s first choice of title was “Improbable Miscalculations in the Pursuit of Women” but he thought that was too honest. Enjoy.
