You Don't Know Me: A New Adult Romance Faleena Hopkins

From The Book, A Stand-Alone New Adult Romance Story:

We all wait as she looks up. Her lips separate slowly and she whispers something I never thought I'd ever hear... "I don't want the money. I couldn't possibly take it. It's not mine. It belongs to them."

I shift in my seat. "You don't?"

She looks at me with a small shake of her head. "No. What am I going to do with all that money? I would feel awful."

"Of course she wants the money," Jack mutters, angrily. "She's playing you! Sean, Why am I the fucking bad guy? We're talking fifty million dollars. Who the fuck turns that down. Open your eyes!"

My eyes are open, because now with the money taken out of the picture, I'm suddenly aware of the humanity behind all of this. That what Tom said, is true. She's just had her entire world turned upside down. The father she thought she had doesn't exist. The father she never got to know is dead, but obviously cared about her. She now has us judging the fuck out of her. And of course there's the mom who lied to her, and who isn't around to answer any questions.

DESCRIPTION: An orphan and aspiring dancer learns her father wasn't who she thought, when on her twenty-first birthday she inherits $50 million dollars and two difficult brothers she never knew she had. Can their rockstar best friend stand up for her? And can he change her mind about wanting to be alone?
