Young Titus Porcinianus Pullus has survived his first campaign, following in the footsteps of not only his father but his illustrious namesake, Titus Pullus. His achievements come to the notice of his Primus Pilus and he is promoted into the First Cohort as a result of his actions. However, as he is about to discover, the "Pax Romana" created by the first Emperor, Caesar Augustus is still fraught with peril and mortal danger. In this new era of peace, as Titus discovers, the direst threat to his safety and career comes from within as well as without. Forced into unwilling cooperation by his Primus Pilus, Titus must tread a careful path, fighting for his life, all while being on the front line in a newly conquered province that has yet to accept this new Pax Romana. Marching With Caesar-Pax Romana is Volume X of the critically acclaimed, international bestselling Marching With Caesar series, featuring Titus Pullus.
