After a tragic car accident in high school, Laura is left scarred and disabled. Since she is unable to remember simple things, she is bound and determined to make her life work out and make a living working as a waitress in a small diner. One day, James, who just arrived in town, sits down near the door and cannot take his eyes from her. During their budding romance, Lillian, Laura's twin, returns from college and sets out to finish what she had started when the girls were only children.

The Broken Promise focuses on loving people for who they are, rather than what they look like. Taking the challenge of believing one twin over another and following his heart, James is forced to make the hardest decision of his life. Trust in God and his heart will ultimately lead him to where he belongs.
