The Denton Experience: Family and Friends - Faces and Places Dr. David Morris Denton

In the telling of these stories, critical elements are the members of this family, their neighbors and friends, their remarkable kinship to the special places around them, and the simple and wonderful things happening there. It is, however, these old and wrinkled mountains of western North Carolina... their majesty, their deep coves and dark hollows, their ridges and towering peaks, and the life-changing influences they impose upon those who linger there that ultimately define The Denton Experience.
