Hills of Light Mr. Ronald W Collins

This is the third volume of the Newfound writers series. The first volume, "Shadows of Water", was focused on the work of poets, and the second volume, "Angles of Life", expanded the range to include prose and art. This volume includes short stories and even a historical piece. We also have in this collection our first "spooky" stories centered around New England myth and legend. Several of the writers in this collection were mesmerized by the light and beauty and serenity found at Newfound Lake. A beauty that catches writers of all ages, as is evident by the fact that the age of the writers span six decades. The title Hills of Light was chosen to reflect the beauty of Newfound Lake evenings and early morns when the light can stun you into silence.
