Lost on Skinwalker Ranch: The True Story of a Property Guard and His Encounter with the Paranormal Erick T. Rhetts

Erick T. Rhetts, admitted history junkie of the off-beat and unusual, is the author of numerous works in the genres of historical non-fiction and fiction. Published under various assumed names, he has been widely sought after for his willingness to maintain his own anonymity as to protect the confidentiality of his subjects and resources. LOST ON SKINWALKER RANCH continues his efforts to bring to the reader topics and tales that are both controversial and polarizing... Riley—the only name by which he is identified—is a member of an elite security unit hired to monitor activity upon the notorious ranch property in north-east Utah known as Skinwalker Ranch. Well-documented as a center of strange and unexplained activity, he is unwittingly targeted by an element of the paranormal entities which frequently show themselves in diverse forms there on the property and lured through a dimensional portal, which up until his incredible and personal experience, had only been witnessed from a distance. Erick T. Rhetts brings to the public for the first time ever the true and substantiated tale of one man's journey to an alternate world of lingering life force and supernatural half-life.
