A Love for Lera (Haikon) Aliyah Burke

Two races, both honored, one known and one believed extinct come together, engaging in a battle for love. Cormac “Kori” MacLochlainne has known for years who his mate is but until now it hadn’t been the right time to claim her. She’s everything he could want, perfect to him. Only she doesn’t see herself that way so it’s up to him to convince her, even if that includes allowing her to go on this crazy rescue. Lera Sidorov is empty. Despite her loving and protective family she is, not whole. Lacking. Incomplete. On her search for her friend, she not only discovers how she and Kori are intertwined but something else...part of something presumed lost to this world long ago, something which will complete her and allow her to be the woman she was created to be.

Dennis Carson:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this A Love for Lera (Haikon) can make you really feel more interested to read.
