Carol Andrews can't believe her luck when her husband, Jim, surprises her with a second honeymoon trip to Florida. But there's a catch—it's really a business trip, not the romantic getaway Carol expects. Jim's been called out of retirement to create a marketing plan for a new television game show aimed at Baby Boomers, The Second Honeymoon Game, and the pilot episode will be shot in the Sunshine State. The honeymoon is really over when the show's executive producer, none other than Carol's grammar school boyfriend, winds up dead on Carol and Jim's first night in Florida. And their son, Mike, is the police's number one suspect.
