The Forgotten Waves, Volume 1 (white interior) 6 x 9

A powerful odyssey of a woman's global journey into a man's world.

An intriguing journey of one woman's adventure through countries and cultures that weaves through places and people. Lily, the protagonist, takes us on a voyage through the eyes of a North American female. Her personal experiences and observations offer a mesmerizing tapestry of curiosity, personal growth, metaphors and social implications. She exposes readers to experiences in brothels, bathhouses, marketplaces, Peacekeeping, Special Forces, the Freemasons, Corporate executives and more. Realities compare to famous men like Dr. Patch Adams, Dr. Robert Kearns, Winston Churchill, Robin Williams and others. The exposition goads us to follow a dream and includes psychotherapy, realities women face today and other challenges.
