I married the man of my dreams. Nobody told me that they might be nightmares.

PHOEBE

I lived a perfectly normal life. I had a fantastic and loving new husband, the kind who brought me breakfast in bed, and a great job with flexible hours. The Lexus SUV that I got as a wedding present wasn't too bad either. I was overjoyed when I told Andreas that we were expecting a child.

Then I found my husband's guns.

His fake passports.

The enormous safe hidden in the basement.

Now I'm on the run, trying to protect myself and my baby. I wish that he would leave us alone, but I want mercy from a man who has none.

ANDREAS

I had achieved nirvana: work-life balance. I kept work at work. When I was home, my only thought was taking care of my wife, an FBI agent's daughter. She didn't know what I did for a living, and I wanted to keep it that way.

My home was filled with love, light, and a whole lot of lust. I had the house. The car. The gorgeous wife with a kid on the way. Everything was perfect.

Today, I came home to find the lights off. Her car and clothes were gone.

I'll get her back at any cost.

The Hitman's Pregnant Bride is a standalone with a guaranteed HEA. No cliffhangers. No cheating.
