Bloodsuckers Michael A. Ventrella

Norman Mark was a politician with skeletons in his closet. Literally. "Bloodsuckers takes modern politics and adds vampires to the mix (yes, we already know all the jokes you're making!) to make it actually new and exciting. Washed-up reporter Steve Edwards can't believe what he sees when a Presidential candidate is gunned down by a man who then disappears before his eyes, apparently transformed to a bat. But that's just the beginning as Steve finds he's been framed for the crime and what he's seen is just the very tip of a blood-drinking iceberg. Ventrella's quick, bright dialogue punctuates the adventure with dry humor even as he ratchets the tension up towards an ending that might just surprise even the jaded reader. Highly recommended!" - Ryk E. Spoor, author of Grand Central Arena and Phoenix Rising
