Countdown 'til Christmas: 25 Days of Christmas Giving Around the World Eileen Telford

This creative, interactive book tells of old-world traditions and their significance today. It tells how you can bring these traditions into your home and offers suggestions for gifts. It answers such questions as to why “X-MAS” holds sacred meaning to the Greeks, and why an orange is placed in the toe of stockings on Christmas Eve. It tells about Lucia, a young Christian girl in ancient Rome, and why she is celebrated today in Sweden, nearly 2000 years after her martyrdom. You will learn about the Advent wreath and the significance of lighting the five candles. You will learn about the candy cane – and what the four red stripes on it represent. Interestingly enough, one of the most popular Christmas carols we sing today was not written for Christmas at all, but for Thanksgiving.

This collection is a delight to read and gives you twenty-five traditions and gift ideas to help you celebrate Christmas up through Christmas day.
