Igniting a Life of Generosity Chris McDaniel

Igniting a Life of Generosity, by Chris McDaniel, is a devotional for those who desire to better understand the wonderful experiences the Bible offers when we grow in the grace of giving.

Not just another devotional it will help you develop your practical and personal theology for generous giving. You will be transformed on your own stewardship journey.

This resource serves as a great tool for churches and ministries to distribute to their constituents, helping each individual learn basic principles and concepts about biblical giving.

"During these tough economic times, it's important for Christian leaders to continue to convey God's powerful message about giving, ECFA President Dan Busby said. Generosity is a theme seen throughout the Scriptures. We are excited about releasing this resource that emphasizes how generosity correlates to a more transforming journey with Christ."

Igniting a Life of Generosity is an insightful devotional that will help readers develop a practical and personal theology for generous giving. Readers will be challenged to become more cheerful givers. The devotional is divided into three sections: What does God want you to know?, What does He want you to do? and Ignite the Fire. Each day contains anecdotes and stories from popular Christian leaders and authors that explore the heart of giving. Corresponding Scripture references anchor each day's main thought, and insightful questions help readers to more deeply consider the material.
