Memory in the Twenty-First Century: New Critical Perspectives from the Arts, Humanities, and Sciences

Memory in the Twenty-First Century: New Critical Perspectives from the Arts, Humanities, and Sciences

This book maps and analyses the changing state of memory at the start of the twenty-first century in essays written by scientists, scholars and writers. It recontextualises memory by investigating the impact of new conditions such as the digital revolution, climate change and an ageing population on our world.
