The Jew of Malta Christopher Marlowe

Gracious and great, that we so boldly dare ('Mongst other plays that now in fashion are) To present this, writ many years ago, And in that age thought second unto none, We humbly crave your pardon. We pursue The story of a rich and famous Jew Who liv'd in Malta: you shall find him still, In all his projects, a sound Machiavill; And that's his character. He that hath past So many censures is now come at last To have your princely ears: grace you him; then You crown the action, and renown the pen.
